

Justin Currie

Mull of Kintyre Music Festival Concert Justin Currie Band / Attic Lights

Justin, appearing with his full band The Justin Currie Band, fronted Del Amitri in the eighties and as a songwriter he co-wrote many of their tracks, penning some of their most successful songs himself. Del Amitri had great success with the hits "Nothing Ever Happens", "Roll To Me", Kiss This Thing Goodbye" and "Always The Last To Know". From 2004 - 2006 Justin has regularly joined singer songwriters Eddi Reader, Colin McIlntyre and Blazin' Fiddles to perform in Scotland as part of the project "With Strings Attached". Recently he has toured as both a successful solo artist and with his full band, last year releasing his latest solo CD "What Is Love For" to critical acclaim. Attic Lights who feature at many festivals this summer have recently signed with Island Records and are currently recording their debut album.

THE KINTYRE CULTURAL FORUM EVENTS DIARY

Clachan Art Show

Clachan will hold its annual Art Show on Aug 15th - 17th in the Village Hall. This event which has been going for over thirty years has a hanging day on Aug 14th for anyone wishing to exhibit.

Clachan Fun Day and Evening Ceilidh

If you are looking for a fun day out head for Clachan on July 19th. Starting at 1.00pm there will be a barbeque, stalls, a craft fair, children's entertainment, games and even 'flying haggis'. In the evening at 8.00pm get your dancing shoes on for a licensed evening ceilidh with Archie John MacVicar. Tickets cost £6 for adults and £2 for school children.

Carradale Auction & Family Dance

Carradale Village Hall will be the venue for a Family Dance on Aug 1st with The Fraser McGlynn Band. On Aug 23rd there will be an auction at noon with a drop off date of Aug 22nd between 4 - 6pm.

Tarbert Seafood Festival

With entertainment spread across two days the Tarbert Seafood Festival is not only for cookery and food enthusiasts but is a fun packed weekend for children and families. Set around Tarbert's natural harbour at the tip of Kintyre, it is now regarded as one of the area's main annual events. The Festival includes a variety of entertainment, Boat Trips on Loch Fyne, a large variety of stalls, a Seafood Trail and a local country market. The arrival of the Seafood Queen and Princesses by fishing boat to be crowned heralds the start of the Festival. From live bands, street entertainers, bouncy stuff, street entertainers, to mouth watering cookery demonstrations and a traditional boat rally there is sure to be something for everyone at the Tarbert Seafood Festival. This year sees the return of two Festival favourites with cookery demonstrations by celebrity chef Nick Nairn and live music provided by Esther o' Connor.

Skipness Family Dances

Skipness Village Hall hosts two family dances at the village hall in July and August, Archie John MacVicar plays on July 18th and Freeland Barbour with the Occasionals playing on Aug 8th. Each night has an 8.30pm start with tickets priced at £6 & £3.

Southend Highland Games

This years Southend Highland Games will be held on July 26th from 6.00pm. The Campbeltown Pipe Band will be in attendance and there will be the usual stalls, beer tent and hot food. This traditional event will feature many races for the youngsters with entry for the public set at only £2.00. Contact details for competitors and stalls are in the Diary.

Heritage Centre Antique Craft Fair

Campbeltown Heritage Centre will hold an Antique Craft Fair on the weekend of July 26th - 27th July. Come along and enjoy the experience with the usual Heritage Centre's teas, coffee, home baking and the homemade soup with crusty bread. For more information watch out for future press and poster advertising.
